Part 2. Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

If parents bring up a child with the sole aim of turning the child into a genius, they will cause a disaster. According to several leading educational psychologists, this is one the biggest mistakes, which ambitious parents make. Generally, the child will be only too aware of what his parents expect, and will fail. Unrealistic parental expectations can cause great damage to children.

However, if parents are not too unrealistic about what they expect their children to do, but ambitious in a sensible way, the child may succeed in doing very well – especially if the parents are very supportive of their child.

Michael Collins is very lucky. He is crazy about music and his parents help him a lot by taking him to concerts and arranging private piano and violin lessons for him. They even drive him 50 kilometers twice a week for violin lessons. Michael’s mother knows very little about music but his father plays the trumpet in a large orchestra. However, he never makes Michael enter music competitions if he is unwilling.

Winston Smith, Michael’s friend, however, is not so lucky. Both his parents are successful musicians, and they set too high a standard for Winston. They want their son to be successful as they are and so they enter him for every piano competition held. They are very unhappy when he does not win. Winston is always afraid that he will disappoint his parents and now he always seems quiet and unhappy.

Question 24: One of the serious mistakes parents can make is to _____.

- A. push their child into trying too much
- B. help their child to become a genius.
- C. make their child become a musician.
- D. neglect their child’s education.

Question 25: Who have criticized the methods of some ambitious parents?

- A. Successful musicians.
- B. Unrealistic parents.
- C. Their children.
- D. Educational psychologists.

Question 26: The phrase “crazy about” in the passage mostly means _____.

- A. “surprised at”
- B. “extremely interested in”
- C. “completely unaware of”
- D. “confused about”

Question 27: The word “They” in the passage refers to _____.

- A. concerts
- B. violin lessons
- C. parents in general
- D. Michael’s parents

Question 28: All of the following people are musical EXCEPT _____.

- A. Winston’s father
- B. Winston’s mother
- C. Michael’s father
- D. Michael’s mother

III. READING. (2,5 marks)

Part 1. Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions.

If parents bring up a child with the sole aim of turning the child into a genius, they will cause a disaster. According to several leading educational psychologists, this is one the biggest mistakes, which ambitious parents make. Generally, the child will be only too aware of what his parents expect, and will fail. Unrealistic parental expectations can cause great damage to children.

However, if parents are not too unrealistic about what they expect their children to do, but ambitious in a sensible way, the child may succeed in doing very well – especially if the parents are very supportive of their child.

Michael Collins is very lucky. He is crazy about music and his parents help him a lot by taking him to concerts and arranging private piano and violin lessons for him. They even drive him 50 kilometers twice a week for violin lessons. Michael's mother knows very little about music but his father plays the trumpet in a large orchestra. However, he never makes Michael enter music competitions if he is unwilling.

Winston Smith, Michael's friend, however, is not so lucky. Both his parents are successful musicians, and they set too high a standard for Winston. They want their son to be successful as they are and so they enter him for every piano competition held. They are very unhappy when he does not win. Winston is always afraid that he will disappoint his parents and now he always seems quiet and unhappy.

Question 19: One of the serious mistakes parents can make is to _____.

- A. neglect their child's education. B. push their child into trying too much
C. make their child become a musician. D. help their child to become a genius.

Question 20: Who have criticized the methods of some ambitious parents?

- A. Educational psychologists. B. Successful musicians.
C. Their children. D. Unrealistic parents.

Question 21: The phrase “crazy about” in the passage mostly means _____.

- A. “confused about” B. “surprised at”
C. “completely unaware of” D. “extremely interested in”

Question 22: The word “They” in the passage refers to _____.

- A. violin lessons B. concerts C. Michael’s parents D. parents in general

Question 23: All of the following people are musical EXCEPT _____.

- A. Winston’s father B. Michael’s mother C. Michael’s father D. Winston’s mother

Part 2. Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet that best fits the blank space in the following ASEAN was first (24)_____ on August 8, 1967, with five founding members. It has gradually developed into an organisation (25)_____ boasts comprehensive and close co-operation among members, comprising 10 Southeast Asian countries and going on to become the ASEAN Community on December 31, 2015.

Viet Nam officially joined the regional (26)_____ on July 28, 1995, during the 28th ASEAN Foreign Ministers Meeting (AMM-28) held in Brunei. Joining ASEAN represented a historic, correct, and timely decision for the country as it sought to integrate (27)_____ the region and the wider world. This move was part of wider efforts helping to consolidate a peaceful and stable local environment, taking advantage of external resources for the cause of development, and boosting Viet Nam on its development pathway.

Over the past 27 years since joining the bloc under the motto of an 'active and responsible' member, Viet Nam has (28)_____ several contributions to a united, peaceful, stable, and developed ASEAN that possesses a steady voice in the region recognised by major countries.
